

SHADINGS

A shading is a galvanized steel structure with a flat roof assigned to create a microclimate (shading, temperature, control of illnesses) for crops in cool climate areas in which it is possible that the crop cannot be grown without a complex greenhouse structure.

